VISION

Our duty is to encourage every one in his struggle to live up to his own highest idea, and strive at the same time to make the ideal as near as possible to the Truth.

-Swami Vivekananda

The Centre for Living Values will facilitate PURNA TALEEM through research, teacher-training, leadership and capacity building programs, guided by the “man-making” approach of Swami Vivekananda, Sri Aurobindo, Mahatma Gandhi and other seers, who believed value-based integral approaches towards the development of integral education and practices for holistic development of individuals, groups, communities, institutions, work environments and leadership for a harmonious and value based society.

THE NEED

The universal right to education brings with it the need for PURNA TALEEM (Holistic Learning):

1. Value-based research and Innovative practice in learning and living environments
2. Human Values and Equity in teachers, mentors and leaders
3. Integral and Multifaceted curriculum development in both local and global contexts.
4. Development of pedagogical, caring and communicative skills
5. Teacher training in Value Based Education, Human Assessment and Development.

These facets must operate simultaneously for maximum effectiveness in facilitating PURNA TALEEM, leading to Self-Knowledge, Personal Success and Caring Environments.

OBJECTIVES

The Centre for Living Values will draw from indigenous knowledge and systems, world cultures, sustainable living traditions and eternal Human values, through oral or folk narratives, philosophies, Living Sciences and from visionaries such as Swami Vivekananda, Sant Kabir, Sri Aurobindo, Gurudev Rabindranath Tagore, Mahatma Gandhi and other world thinkers and practitioners.

It will be led by the best local and global mentors, for Leadership, Mentoring, Training and Capacity Building with holistic attitudes, skills and technologies for Empowerment, Sustainability and Wellness.

Above all, It will be a learning eco-system and training space for Innovative Mentorship with Integral Values and Practices, for Research, Experimentation and Innovation.

The organic habitat will offer a space for for capacity building and wholesome growth of all enrolled into the system, a perfect space for the resurgence of the joyful co-existence and for the assimilation and expression of wisdom, knowledge, learning and Wholesome living.
